Reflections by Dom Renzi

Father you have called me to serve you in the sanctuary of your church.
Please pour out your blessings on my ministry today.
Please guide my hands and my steps that I may fulfill my duties with grace and devotion.

My name is Dom Renzi and along with my family we have been parishioners at Holy Family for 39 years. Yes, I was one of those who attended mass at the fire hall. Over the years I have been active in many ministries starting as an usher and yet somehow continued to be drawn or called to be active / involved in doing more for our parish. Currently, I am active as a Sacristan but also in many other ministries of service and hospitality and previously held positions on parish and financial councils, church sexton and trustee.

But today, I would like to introduce you to the ministry of the sacristan or the "ministry of the sacristy ". I have been Holy Family’s sacristan for the past 15 years and found this responsibility to be rewarding both spiritually and personally. I did not just wake up one day and step into the full responsibility of a sacristan but each day I learned the “How To” and “Guidelines” from priests, deacons and instruction manuals.

What is a sacristan?:
A sacristan is an individual charged with care of the sacristy, the church, and their contents.

Here at Holy Family the sacristan duties vary, but at all liturgical services the basic jobs are:
• Preparing the bread and sacred vessels for the celebration of the mass. This includes readying the wine, water, and bread and putting them in place for start of mass.
• Setting up the church. Typically, sacristans arrive at church before anyone else - often even the priest/celebrant. They light the candles, arrange the books, and basically perform a little housekeeping before mass begins.

• Assisting the altar servers. Sacristans prepare and help the altar servers perform their basics duties before and during mass.
• Assuring that all celebrants, altar servers, music, Eucharistic ministers, lectors and ushers are present and prepared.
• Preparing the Baptistery area for the sacrament of baptism. This includes the water for the font, baptismal candles, Easter Candle, towels and Holy Oil.

Does this sound like you??
Responsible, reliable, enthusiastic and willing to help in any situation.
Present every Sunday or during the week.
Able to sit alone on the side and ready to jump off the bench to assist the priest or deacon.

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, how often is our generosity at the minimum level required? We do just enough or give just enough. Remember, the Lord calls us to be Stewards, generous with all the gifts He has given us, to grow them and return them with increase.
